

Eyes on the World- English Travel Log contest Emily Chen

This picture was taken during last winter vacation ◦ I went to Nagoya, Japan with my family ◦ It was snowing and very cold then ◦ I was very excited about it because it was my first to see the snow ◦ I just like a kid jumping and running everywhere and take lots of pictures ◦ The roof of the houses there were slant so the snow won't leave on it ◦ They just like a toy if you saw them in a high place ◦

I also visited the temple there ◦ Although the structure was very old , it was clean in it ◦ We needed to take off our shoes and changed into their shoes ◦ When I arrived the top floor of the temple ◦ The scene I could see was magnificent ◦ It was snowing and many tourists under it , just like I was in a fairy tale ◦

This was the first time I wore Japanese traditional clothing ◦ They usually wore it in important festival ◦ We wore it to eat our first dinner in Japan ◦ Just like the welcome ceremony ◦ That night we chatted with each other happily and sang songs loudly ◦ We all have a good time there ◦
